BUT GOD

<sup>22</sup> Now that you have purified yourselves by obeying the truth so that you have sincere love for each other, love one another deeply, from the heart. <sup>23</sup> For you have been born again, not of perishable seed, but of imperishable, through the living and enduring word of God. <sup>24</sup> For, "All people are like grass, and all their glory is like the flowers of the field; the grass withers and the flowers fall, <sup>25</sup> but the word of the Lord endures forever." And this is the word that was preached to you.

1 Peter 1:22-25 (NIV)

In Melbourne to speak at the Arrow graduation & find my heart is full & broken all at once. Heart is full seeing Arrow leadership doing so well - great program, wonderfully led, excellent outcomes.

My heart is broken through two conversations, one with an old friend another I just met. Both experiencing personal loss & pain.

It's a metaphor for life, on a daily basis joy & pain, grief & celebration seem to inhabit the same space.

👍❤️ You, Kimberly Smith, Craig Corkill and 84 others

<sup>12</sup> Now I want you to know, brethren, that my circumstances have turned out for the greater progress of the gospel, <sup>13</sup> so that my imprisonment in the cause of Christ has become well known throughout the whole praetorian guard and to everyone else, <sup>14</sup> and that most of the brethren, trusting in the Lord because of my imprisonment, have far more courage to speak the word of God without fear.

15 Some, to be sure, are preaching Christ even [ ]from envy and strife, but some also [ ]from good will; 16 the latter do it out of love, knowing that I am appointed for the defense of the gospel; 17 the former proclaim Christ out of selfish ambition [ ]rather than from pure motives, thinking to cause me distress in my [ ]imprisonment. 18 What then? Only that in every way, whether in pretense or in truth, Christ is proclaimed; and in this I rejoice.
